CALL FOR PAPERS

The JOURNAL OF HAITIAN STUDIES (JOHS) is the official publication of the Haitian Studies Association. It is the only refereed journal dedicated solely to scholarship on Haiti and Haiti’s relations with the International Community. The journal’s editorial board consists of leading national and international scholars specializing in a wide range of academic fields, including political science, sociology, education, literature, and religion.

JOHS publishes articles in English, French and Haitian Kreyol. Please send an abstract of 150 words, along with your paper. Papers should not exceed 25 pages of double-spaced text, including endnotes. As papers are sent out for blind review, include your name, address and e-mail address on a separate cover sheet only.

Send three hard copies of your paper, along with one copy on disk (Microsoft Word for either PC or Mac) to the editor:

Dr. Claudine Michel, Editor
Journal for Haitian Studies
Center for Black Studies
4603 South Hall
University of California, Santa Barbara
Santa Barbara, CA 93106-3140

For further information, contact the Center for Black Studies at UCSB by phone at 805-893-3914.

We also are asking that you assist in our efforts to reach a larger audience by recommending the Journal to friends and to your library. We have enclosed an extra subscription form that you may photocopy.

Thank you for supporting JOHS.
